MRS. CROSSETT IS CONVINCED

She Saw Durrant on the Fatal Day — The Cholera in Honolulu.

Chili's Demurrer to McKinstrey and Shields' Claim—General American News.

San Francisco, Sept. 16.—The Durrant trial entered upon its ninth week this morning. A slight change in the programme for to-day was made necessary by death in the family of Mrs. George P. Morgan, whose examination was not finished when the court adjourned last Thursday. Durrant's defenders are unable to persuade Mrs. Elizabeth Crossett to modify her testimony regarding her ride in the Valencia street car on the afternoon of April 3rd. The old lady is as sure of the day as of the fact that she rode on the same car with Durrant and tried to attract his attention from the girl who was with him. Mrs. Crossett's visit on the following day was to the home of her son-in-law in Alameda. She perfectly remembers the day she went, and her friends, who went with her to the ferry, will be able to corroborate her.

The names of Andrew McKinstrey and the heirs of Patrick Shields, in their claim against Chile, are again attracting attention. The men were sailors on the American ship Kewana, and in 1891, while in Valparaiso, were brutally beaten by Chilean police. Shields afterwads died from his injuries, and a claim for damages against Chile by the United States was not allowed, it being found that the men were British subjects. Lord Rosebery championed their cause, however, and another tribunal composed of German, British and Chilean are now considering the claim.

St Louis, Mo., Sept. 16.—As the west bound Vandalia passenger train was passing through Collinsville Ills. to-day, it struck the half open switch, and the locomotive and baggage cars were derailed and flung to one side, while the passenger coaches passed on unharmed. Charles Sandifer, fireman, was killed, and Engineer H. A. Bauers seriously injured.

Albany, N. Y., Sept 16.—Judge Rumsey this morning sentenced Charles N. Davis, convicted murderer of May Shannon, of Cohoes, and Geo. Smith, convicted of the murder of an old man named Richtmeyer, to die at Dannamora prison during the week beginning Oct. 27th. next.

Madison, Wis., Sept 16.—Yesterday afternoon a cyclone knocked ten cars from Chicago and N. W. track near this city, seriously injuring Conductor Henry Starr, Brakeman Jos. Felts, and Dennis Foley, baggageman, all of whom were in the caboose which went down a thirty foot embankment. Felts may die, as he is injured internally.

CANADIAN NEWS NOTES.

B. C's Salmon Pack—Toronto's Water Supply—M. & N. Railway.

Ottawa, Sept. 16.—The department of justice has decided that steam pleasure yachts may carry passengers without remuneration if certain requirements of the Steamboat Inspection Act are complied with. Among the provisions which must be observed are the payment of an annual rate of duty, inspection fees, inspection of boilers and machinery, the obligation to carry one life boat, to take strict precautions against fire, one life preserver for each person on board, etc.

The fisheries department are advised that the British Columbia canneries packed eighteen million pounds of salmon this year.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—A day or two ago Acting Mayor Shaw cabled City Treasurer Coady, now in London, asking him to ascertain the fees for which Mr. Manserrgh, the distinguished engineer, would charge for reporting on the projected tunnel scheme, and as to improving the present water works system generally, including the gravitation scheme. This morning Ald. Shaw received a reply from Mr. Coady stating that Mr. Manserrgh's fee would be £2,500 for reporting on the tunnel scheme alone, or £3,000 for reporting on the present system and on the gravitation scheme.

Sherbrooke, Sept. 16.—The Ross Pulp & Saw Mills were entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. Soon after the arrival of the firemen two largeboilers in the mill exploded with a deafening noise, but without injuring anybody. An A. B. & M. freight car on the siding was also consumed. This is the third time that the Ross Mills have been burned. Those destroyed were new ones that had only been built lately. Loss $10,000.

Winnipeg, Sept. 16.—The representative of the English bondholders of the Manitoba and Northwestern railway, now in this city, recommends the immediate extension of the line to Prince Albert.

FATAL FIRE ON A STEAMER.

Seven Persons Burned—Rebellion of a Chinese Province.

London, Sept. 16.—Fire broke out on the steamer Iona from Edinburgh to London and the flames spread with so much rapidity that before aid could reach the vessel six passengers and the stewardess were burned to death. The fire was put out after a four hours' struggle.

Hong Kong, Sept. 16.—It is reported that a rebellion has broken out on the border of Fokien. The insurgents are said to have occupied the town of Heng Leng, from which the officials fled, leaving the people to the mercy of the rebels. A detachment of imperial troops are advancing to give battle to them.

The fire broke out when the Iona was off Clacton, it origirated in the lamp room near the second cabin and in the fore part of the vessel. The passengers were aroused and it was supposed that all had escaped. While the crew were busy fighting the flames, some soldiers on board assisted in lowering the boats and supplying the passengers with life belts. There was no wind and the sea was perfectly smooth. There was, however, so much excitement and confusion that the captain was unable to restore order. Suddenly it was discovered that some women and children were missing. The stewardess re-entered the burning cabin, it is presumed to try to rescue the missing, and she also perished.

Darkness and volumes of smoke issuing from the cabin combined to make a terrible scene.

Tangiers, Sept. 16.—There have been 12 new cases of cholera reported here. The deaths from the disease number 11 so far.

COMING TO THE FAIR.

Steamer Rithet Leaves Westminster With a Big Load for Victoria.

New Westminster, Sept. 16.—The steamer Rithet left this afternoon with a large load of exhibits and excursionists for the Victoria fair. The exhibits consist of dairy produce, grain, honey and live stock. J. R. Brennan is also taking his trotter, Rifton, over for the races. To-morrow a lot more of excursionists, with the lacrosse team, will go over.

VICTORIA'S FALL FAIR.

Hard at Work Getting the Exhibits Ready for the Opening To-Morrow.

Manager's of the Traveling Dairy Arrival From the East—First Glimpses.

Things are hardly in order yet at the the fair grounds, but already a good idea can be obtained of the treat in store for the public when the exhibition is thrown open to-morrow. Mr. Renouf, the honorary secretary of the association, Superintendent Lamberton, and in fact everybody connected with the affair, including the exhibitors, have had a busy day. The officers allotting space and the exhibitors preparing their displays. As usual the manufacturers of the city monopolize the space on the ground floor of the main building and are making exhibits that would do credit to any factory. Among the manufacturers who have large exhibits are: The Albion Iron Works Co., stoves and machinery; The Canada Paint Co.; F. Norris, trunks and saddlery; The Victoria Brewery; M. R. Smith, biscuits; Volte & Ward, Vinegar, pickles, cider and ink; Okell & Morris Fruit Preserving Co.; Parker's Meat Cannery; Stemler & Earle, spices, etc.; Brackman & Ker, oat meal, etc.; W. J. Pendray, soaps, vinegar and blacking; the Victoria Rice and Flour Mills; British Columbia Terra Cotta Co.; Chris Morley and Thorpe & Co., soda waters; Weiler Bros., furniture. On the ground floor exhibits are also made by numerous Victoria merchants, including George Powell & Co., stoves, etc.; Clarke & Pearson, stoves; Hibben & Co., and Charles Braund, books and stationery; Charles E. Redfern, jewelry, silverware and clocks; J. Barnsley & Co., sporting goods; Shore & Co., hardware; M. & A. Fox, cutlery; Perry & Turner, stoves and hardware; M. W. Waitt & Co., musical instruments and bicycles; G. C. Shaw & Co., gents' furnishings; the Safety Bed Clothes Holder Co.; Major & Elridge, provisions; Erskine, Wall & Co., groceries; Savannah, the photographer, and the Colonist printing and lithographing. All the displays are very tastefully arranged.

On the second floor the chief points of interest are the department for ladies' work, which is in charge of the members of the Women's Council of Victoria and Vancouver Island, and the art department in charge of Rene Quentin. The ladies were hard at work all day arranging their exhibits, and pleasantly but firmly asked visitors to postpone their visits until all is ready. A glimpse can, however, be obtained, and one thing can be depended upon, there will be no empty space in the wing of the building occupied by the ladies.

The same can be said of the art department, which occupies the wing opposite the ladies' department. The walls are already well covered with pictures, many of which would pass a critic's thorough examination. M. Quentin has on view a number of pictures, the centre piece of the group being the large drop curtain painted by him for the A. O. U. W. hall. There is also a group of pictures painted by Miss Walker, which she kindly allowed the association to use, she not being a competitor. All of her pictures are well painted, but one particularly noticeable is a life-like picture of Chief Justice Davie. In this department are some very artistically painted china and a large number of individual exhibits.

The flowers occupy a great deal of space and make a grand exhibit. All the nurseries are competing for the various prizes, and there are also competitions among the amateur gardeners. The scent from the cut flowers pervades the whole building.

Messrs. Lindley & Foster, the taxidermists, and Mr. Churton, the skin dresser, have very interesting exhibits on this floor, which besides is partly occupied by fruits. Competition in this class is very keen, and if the fruit is as good as it looks the judges have a pleasant duty to perform.

In a corner on the first floor the members of the W. C. T. U. have erected a tent which is comfortably furnished and will be a welcome retreat for those who tiring of walking around, wish to sit down.

Visitors to the exhibition must not fail to visit the top floor, even though stairs have to be climbed. If they do they will miss the most interesting portion of the whole affair. It is the children's department, and the little ones have succeeded in covering most of the available space with their maps and samples of their writing. The pupils of the Cedar Hill, South Ward and Mount Tolmie schools also make special exhibits which are very creditable. Mr. J. H. Brownlee has an exhibit of maps compiled by himself.

The dairy, field and garden produce has been placed in the building formerly used for the poultry. Here it can be seen to better advantage, besides giving more room in the main building. The produce will form quite a little exhibit in itself, and by the time all is in the building will be pretty well filled.

The pavilion erected last year for the farming implements and carriages, is already well filled, the local carriage factories showing some splendid samples of their work.

In the yard there is hardly an empty

GRAVE FINANCIAL PROBLEM

Confronting the United States—A Recurrence of the Panic Threatened

The Syndicate Unable to Stem the Enormous Tide of Gold Export

New York, Sept. 16.—The Evening Post's financial article says: There were two remarkable changes in the weekly bank statement, each of them important in its bearing on the exchange situation. The surprisingly large increase in loans as a result almost wholly of commercial discounts, was one, but the decrease of $9,436,300 specie, and legal tenders, in no less than 5¼ per cent total clearing houses reserved, was the plainest sign of automatic relief from the pressure of gold for export. During last January, notwithstanding a huge exportation from the glutted market, the total cash holdings of the banks decreased during the week only $282,000; in the preceding fortnight, they had increased nearly $12,000,000. This month the net reduction of money supply has been continuous, and what is of chief significance, the interior money markets, which were crowding their idle money into New York eight months ago, are now figuring heavily on the drain on the surplus. On such a glutted money market as that of last January, or even of last July, foreign capital could find no employment even at the minimum of 1 per cent. But since the turn in domestic exchange rates during August, fully $4,000,000 has been shipped westward from New York in excess of currency receipts. This week a net shipment of a million and a half was made. Nor in the meantime ought the increase in the country's clearing houses exchanges be allowed to pass unnoticed.

This is indeed one of the surest signs of a demand for idle currency, and this week the total clearings run 14¾ per cent. above 1894, and 23 per cent. above 1893, making moreover no discouraging comparison with busy years preceding those last mentioned.

The New York Financier says this week: "If the statement of the associated banks of this city for the week ending September 14 affords any criterion, the days of one price money in New York city has passed for some time to come. The banks now hold less idle cash than they have reported since April 27 last, when the reserve was affected by bond syndicate operations, and while the heavy cash reductions of the past week, amounting to $9,436,300, were due in part to gold exports, the facts should not be overlooked that the loan items show a remarkable tendency to advance without symptoms of relapse, the increase for the week ending September 14th being $64,333,100. The aggregate loans are now $522,698,900, or nearly ten millions in excess of the figure that stood for years as a high water mark.

"The decrease of $5,009,100 in deposits shows that money is being employed to advantage by interior banks in their own locality, although withdrawals of legal tenders had probably a great deal to do with the last week's falling off. The decrease of $7,524,700 in legal tender was brought about by shipments previously referred to, and also by the heavy export movement which necessitates the movement of legal tenders. The decrease of $1,911,600 in specie was brought about by the deposits of gold in the subtreasury made by the banks identified witht he bond syndicate. The gold shipments of Saturday do not figure in the current statement, but will be shown next week when, according to conservative estimates, there will be a still further reduction in the reserves. A new bond issued in face of such a heavy decrease in cash would put money rates far higher than they have been since the panic."

The stock market on Saturday opened weak, the unsettling influences of the previous day continuing operative. London prices for American securities, as had been expected, came lower, the reported declines extending to ¾ per cent. There was no important news bearing upon the prices of stock exchange securities, but the expectations of something vaguely unfavorable was felt by many of the traders. The downward tendency was not relieved until 11:15, when covering of shorts temporarily stemmed the recession. The rally extended from ⅛ to 1½ per cent., the last in sugar, tobacco and Missouri Pacific. The improvement was short-lived, however, and in the 15 minutes of business another effective drive caused recessions of ⅛ to ¼ per cent., sugar making the extreme loss. The market closed weak at not far from the lowest figures of the day. The developments for the week, ordinary in character until Friday, were completely overshadowed on that day by the totally unexpected intelligence the Messrs. Lazard Freres, who had been considered one of the most influential members of the great bond syndicate had been compelled to engage the sum of $2,500,000 in gold for shipment to Europe by Saturday's steamer. This news created intense excitement, and was improved effectively by the professional bears in depressing prices. The liquidation by genuine owners and holders of securities also immediately set in on a large scale, as the general inference drawn in Wall street, and elsewhere, was that the syndicate had either reached the end of its resources for the protection of the treasury gold reserve, or had intended to assume no further moral obligation on this score. As is well known, the legal contract of the syndicate with the government expired over two months since. As the fidelity of the syndicate in the fulfillment of its bond to the letter, in the face of apparently hopeless conditions, challenged the admiration of the financial world, so the apprehension caused by the apparent collapse produced a semi-panicky condition. The wildest rumors were set going that wholesale exports of gold would now begin so as to rapidly diminish the treasury gold reserve until the point was reached where another large issue of government bonds would be imperative to maintain the credit of the country. It was recalled at the sub-treasury at New York that on the day immediately previous to the last government issue, the officials had been reported as telegraphing to Washington that they could not hold out another 24 hours.

The reassuring statement made by Lazard Freres, by Mr. Morgan and other influential members of the syndicate, have had only a partial effect in tranquilising the Wall street community, as the serious conditions now confronting the country are more clearly outlined. The most important of these conditions are the heavy obligations of the United States to Europe, on account of the balance of trade against us, which has swelled by the heavy imports and the totally inadequate movement of our exports to cancel the same; the same shrinkage in the prices of our agricultural products; the comparative failure of our winter wheat crop; the shortness of and slow movement of our coton crop, as well as the present heavy stocks of the staple abroad, and the persistent selling of our securities in Europe, continue a grave problem.

On the other hand, conservative dealers, leaving the probability of a government bond issue out of the question, believe that under the auspices of the syndicate, a block of our securities, variously estimated at from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000, will be floated abroad, which will make enough exchange, together with the syndicate and the banks, to tide the situation over until a supply of grain, cotton and other bills has appeared large enough to stem the tide of gold exports to Europe. The other new developments have temporarily been ignored as of relative unimportance to the foregoing considerations.

THE ONLY MAN IN 'FRISCO.

The Prosecution Claim to Have Further Testimony Against Durrant.

San Francisco, Sept. 16.—The increase in the number of witnesses against Theodore Durrant, and the apparent strengthening of the prosecution's case, has made no difference in the attitude of the counsel for the defense, who still maintain that they have something conclusive in the prisoner's favor. The prisoner's parents have apparently lost none of their confidence in their son's innocence, although they admit their ignorance of the plan of the defense to be made by their son's attorney's. The defendant seems now to realize the weight of the case against him, but is as unmoved as ever.

The police have at last identified Durrant's unknown girl admirer, who attends court every day and who furnishes him flowers. She is Rosalind Holland, the daughter of well-to-do people living in Oakland. She knew Durrant before the murder, and says she believes in his innocence. It was suggested that perhaps the funds for Durrant's defense were supplied by this young woman, but it is doubtful if she can control the amount sufficient for this purpose. The expenses for the defense are believed to be large.

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—The prosecutors of Theodore Durrant are prepared now to produce a witness who is expected to overwhelm the young student and destroy his last hope of alibi. One who knows him well, and who left the city that she might not be forced to testify against him, will go on the witness stand and testify that on the afternoon of April 3 she rode to the Mission upon the same car with Durrant and Blanche Lamont. As the car travelled on its way she noticed the young school girl carefully. She observed her clothing closely, noted her school books, watched her movements and followed her conversation with the young student. The girl was unknown to her, but she had watched Durrant from his childhood as she would one of her own children. Shortly after 4 o'clock the car arrived at Twenty-second street. The woman, who had been interested in the young couple, arose to leave the car. Durrant and the school girl were already on the way out. The student assisted the girl from the car, and then gave his hand to the old lady. The three walked to the sidewalk together and stopped there for a moment. Durrant introduced Blanche Lamont to the old lady, and a few moments later left her to proceed down Twenty-second street toward Bartlett street. He and Blanche Lamont talking and laughing, walked toward the church. This story will be told by Mrs. James Crossett, who lives with friends in the Mission. Mrs. Crossett knows Theodore Durrant too well to be mistaken. The very conditions of the case make it impossible for an error to be committed. Mrs. Crossett not only saw Durrant, but took his hand and spoke to him. She will be placed on the witness stand next week.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

THE AMERICAN CROP.

Information Just Received by the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The statistical report of the agricultural department issued to-day gives a review of the general crop conditions not comprised in that made public on the 10 inst. It says that in Minnesota there was a lower yield than was anticipated, and considerable smut, which is also prevalent in North Dakota, where threshing shows a very good yield. There are slightly improved conditions in South Dakota. As to the Pacific coast, the report shows that Oregon has improved since August 1. Washington's damage by hot winds in the western part was offset by good condition in the east, the berry being hard and well filled. The California crop, which was largely shelled out by June winds, is estimated to be less since farming became general in that state, and considerable late grain has been cut for hay.

Barley—Five-sixths of the product of barley in 1894 was produced in six states whose conditions at harvest the present year are: New York, 90; Wisconsin, 87; Minnesota, 97; Iowa, 92; North Dakota, 93; California, 83.

Fruit—Both apples and peaches show slight improvement. Drouth has caused dropping and the too rapid maturity of apples, but the damage has not been sufficient to alter the general average for the country. The average condition of apples is now 72, and of peaches 84.1. Grapes range from a half to a full crop in the eastern middle states, about three-fourths of the normal product being reported from New York. Figures are generally higher in the south. About three-fourths the usual product is indicated for Kansas and Nebraska. In the mountain and Pacific states conditions are generally high. Improvement is noted in the later region, except in California, where a decline of one point is reported. The department's California agent reported the crop fully up to the average, but the quantity in many sections is from 15 to 25 per cent. short.

PERAMBULATING MINISTERS.

Covering as Much of the Country as They can in the Short Time left to Them.

Controller Wallace to Sound the Lodges in the West—Case of Fitzsimmons.

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—The noon train on Saturday for the Pacific Coast took along with it the Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, controller of customs, who goes on a visit to British Columbia, Manitoba and the Territories. Although Messrs. Haggart and Montague will leave in a short time to go over the same territory there is nothing in common between these two cabinet ministers and the minister who has the seat outside the door of the privy council, beyond the fact that he like they is most anxious that he should be allowed to continue to draw his salary of $5000 per year from the government. The present cabinet is divided into different cliques, the principal object of each being how to best serve their own individual interests and allow the country to look after itself. As a result of this we have Sir Mackenzie Bowell and "Tom Daly," as the minister of the interior is familiarly called, travelling ever since the last session of parliament in great style all over the western country. For some time past they have been away out among the Indian reserves near Battleford, where no telegrams could reach them. Sir Adolphe Caron, one of the kickers of last session, in meantime running the whole business of the country to suit himself. Seldom is he able to get a quorum of the cabinet together to pass his orders. Sir Adolphe has, in addition to being acting premier, charge of six departments of the public service. Three ministers are a large number to be in the city at a time. When Mr. Haggart and Dr. Montague reach here Mr. Ouimet is telegraphed for and the four are able to have a cabinet meeting. Within the last few days Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper has returned, and now Mr. Ouimet is not required here.

Ever since the session of parliament the sole object of the ministers seemed to be who could travel most and how expensive the trip could be made. They have gone on the principle of the man of whom we read of in the New Testament history and who made up his mind to "eat, drink and be merry," for to-morrow he was going to die. The ministers know that their political end is at hand, and consequently they are going to have as much personal enjoyment as a short existence and a depleted treasury will permit. The premier led off the dance and his followers have kept up the carnival in good style.

Such being the case, the controllers consider that they are as much entitled to have a share in the expenditure for travelling expenses and palace cars as the full fledged cabinet ministers. They argue the matter out in this way: The minister of trade and commerce, Mr. Ives, who is supposed to represent them at the council board, has not been in Ottawa for many months. He has been in poor health. The two controllers, Messrs. Wallace and Wood, have therefore had full charge of all that appertained to their departments. They also have control of two of the most important departments of the service—customs and inland revenue. On these grounds they have made up their minds to have a trip to the Pacific coast, in addition to the tours they have already had through the Maritime provinces.

But the visit of Mr. Wallace to the far west is of greater importance than that of a mere holiday. Of the protests that have reached Ottawa against the remedial order the most emphatic came from the Vancouver and New Westminster districts of British Columbia. The Northwest and Manitoba were, of course, against the coercion of Manitoba. Mr. Wallace has talked openly against coercion, but has at the same time been an active agent and drawing his salary along with the coercionists. He talked of resigning, but there were always 5000 reasons why he should not bring his threat into practice. He managed to get the grand Orange lodge to endorse his conduct in this regard. He did more, for he got the same lodge to cast aside Mr. E. F. Clarke, Toronto's ex-mayor, because that gentleman wanted the order to be consistent with its principles, instead of making itself wholly subservient to the interests of a few politicians like Mr. Wallace and Bob Birmingham, the Tory Organizer for Ontario.

The mission, therefore, of Mr. Wallace to the west is to see how he stands with the western lodges. Will they, too, endorse his conduct, or will he require to resign. Nobody here imagines that Mr. Wallace will resign unless the government compels him, no matter what the western lodges may say. He will stand by the constitution and draw his salary. But if he succeeds in getting the Orange lodges along with him then the government might have a little hesitancy in compelling him to resign.

I have it on very good authority that Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper has written Sir Mackenzie Bowell pointing out that the speeches of Mr. Wallace at Orange gatherings on the school question are wholly inconsistent with a man who is a member of an administration pledged to give effect to the remedial order at the next session of parliament. In fact, in the opinion of the minister of justice, it brings ridicule upon the government. Sir Hibbert is, therefore, of opinion that Mr. Wallace ought to be compelled to resign. He points to the speech of Mr. Wallace at Halifax, at a time when he (Tupper) was assuring the people of his province that the government was going to stand or fall by its policy on the Manitoba school case, as a sufficient cause to show why Mr. Wallace should go. But instead of going Mr. Wallace is asserting himself in a different way by making an additional drain on the treasury. Just what kind of a reception he is to get in the far west remains to be seen.

The newspapers here are full of the Fitzsimmons matter once more. The following is an extract from one of them:

"James Fitzsimmons, deputy warden of the New Westminster, B. C., penitentiary, has assisted to make political history in Canada. His case has been one of agitation for years in British Columbia, and now that he is to be removed to Stony Mounty penitentiary, Manitoba, another agitation is apt to rise in that province.

"The history of New Westminster penitentiary for years has been one of scandals. Food products were carried away from it, materials of other kinds disappeared, no departmental account was given of produce of the farm, coffins were made in the penitentiary for charitable institutions outside, and Justice McCreight kept his horse at the penitentiary and swore he paid Fitzsimmons for same.

"Fitzsimmons, who was supported by Inspector Moylan, was virtually warden, and officers took their instructions from him and not from the warden. Departmental inquiries resulted in no good, and when Justice Drake was appointed a royal commissioner to inquire into the whole matter, Fitzsimmons was dismissed by Sir John Thompson.

"His friends agitated in his behalf, and Fitzsimmons came to Ottawa himself. The result was that Fitzsimmons was reinstated by Sir Hibbert Tupper. British Columbia members and senators carried the fight into parliament. Tupper did not feel like backing down, but gave Fitzsimmons two months' leave of absence, with an assurance to members that he would not be reinstated.

"Fitzsimmons not being dismissed, still kept his quarters in the penitentiary. Delegations protested to first minister Bowell when out there against this. The premier promised to have him removed. Sir Hibbert Tupper has now sent Fitzsimmons to Stony mountain penitentiary as deputy warden. If no protest is made from Manitobans he will be allowed to remain there." SLABTOWN.

THE CHOLERA IN HONOLULU.

Worse Than the Authorities Admit—Natives Unwilling to be Treated.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Private advices received from Honolulu and published here to-day state that cholera has secured a stronger foothold on the Hawaiian capital than the authorities are willing to admit. The natives are said to be much incensed at the Honolulu health officials, and do not willingly obey their orders. The natives not only conceal new cases from the authorities, but decline to use the treatment prescribed, and hides the fatalities resultant from the epidemic. The natives will not trust themselves in the hands of the board of health if they can avoid it, believing that such treatment means certain death. Those who come intimately into contact with the natives say that they are much excited over the spread of the disease, which they ascribe to the unpopular board of health.

It is predicted that unless the disease abates or some change is made in its management the natives may revolt and resort to their favorite remedies for diseases—riots and incendiarism. There are physicians in Honolulu who enjoy the confidence of the natives, but these doctors are not in favor with the health board, and can take no prominent part in the suppression of the epidemic. If put in control these men might do more than the entire board of health, for they could convince the natives that the sanitary regulations are for their good, and not part of a white man's plot to exterminate all Hawaiians.

Rear Admiral Bearslee has received advices from Honolulu which lead him to believe that the cholera epidemic is not so serious as has been indicated. The admiral has received a report from the captain of the United States ship Bennington, which states that one death from cholera occurred on that vessel. No mention is made of other cases on that vessel, and the admiral does not credit the statement made in a letter by Ensign Blue that there were six cases on the Bennington.

Tacoma, Sept. 10.—Under date of Sept. 5 the Hawaiian department of foreign affairs writes to Consul J. T. Steeb, of this port, as follows regarding the cholera: "Since Aug. 17, when cholera appeared here in Honolulu, there have been 31 deaths, one recovery and seven in the hospital, a total of 39 cases. None of the white residents of the city have been attacked, the disease confining itself so far to the native Hawaiians. No danger is apprehended that the white population will be affected. This island, Oahu, is in strict quarantine, and the most rigorous measures have been taken to stamp out the plague."

ANTI-SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN.

Petty Officials, Taking Their Master's Word, Persecute the Press.

Berlin, Sept. 10.—Since the emperor's denunciations of the socialists, the seizure of socialistic papers and the arrest of the editors have been incidents of almost daily occurrence. Among the papers subjected to this treatment are the Magdeburg Volstimme, the Bresla Volkswacht, the Hanover Volkswill, the Eisen Arber Zeitung, the Kiel Volks Zeitung; whilst seizures of papers at Nuremburg, Leipsic and Munich prove that the Saxony and Bavarian governments are prepared to join in the anti-socialist campaign. The Vossische Zeitung, of this city, warns the government against ill-advised attacks upon the liberty of the press. The ministers are all taking their holidays and it is impossible that any decided ani-socialist measures will be adopted at once. It is known, however, that Count von Eulenburg, who is credited with having great influence with Emperor William, has been strongly advising his sovereign towards more rigorous repressive enactments. A Hamburg newspaper declares that the Imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe will resign his office if the emperor should insist upon the introduction of any such measures. Seeing the length to which the local authorities are going, now that the emperor has given the word, the press is becoming more guarded in its comments.

The government has decided to expel all foreign socialists from the country. The Boersen Zeitung predicts the advent of a military dictatorship. The center is preparing a great Halophobe demonstration for September 20, the anniversary of the entry of Italian troops into Rome. The Czar has sent most friendly greetings to the Kaiser. Intrigues are increasing, which have for their object the removal of Prince Hohenlohe from power.

THE CORN TO BE BURNED.

At Ten Cents a Bushel There Is No Profit in Selling It.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—With a 2,500,000,000 bushel crop the West will have corn to burn. According to a Kansas City dispatch, a packing house company has already issued orders to its Wichita house to begin the use of corn for fuel as soon as it can be bought for 12 cents a bushel. On the basis of the May price, with due allowance for freight and for the discount from the contract price for off grades, corn on the Western farms is not much over 10 cents a bushel. The 1895 crop of corn is practically made, and without doubt it will be a record breaker.

It is figured that the total yield of corn this year will be 2,235,000,000 bushels. It will not be far from double the quantity of corn produced last year, and far in excess of any of the star crops in the history of the trade. The prices have become demoralized simply on anticipation. December corn touched 27½ cents last week.

On the basis of present prices corn will be cheaper for fuel than coal during the fall and winter in the states west of the Mississippi river. It is said that experiments have shown that a ton of dry corn will go further in producing steam than a ton of coal. Anthracite coal laid down in Kansas City, even at reduced freight rates, costs $6 a ton in car lots. At points in the interior of Kansas, Nebraska and Western Iowa it costs all the way from $8 to $8.50 a ton. At these same points corn is worth only fom $2.50 to $4 a ton on the cob. Iowa bituminous coal costs over $2 a ton. A prominent operator on the board of trade offered to forfeit $10,000 if he could not furnish the "Alley L." with corn for fuel at less cost than that of coal.

SIR MACKENZIE'S EDUCATION

At Brandon Premier Bowell was presented with addresses by the city council and the Conservative association, and his reply to these was in the nature of a speech to the public, which was heard by a large number of people. One passage in his speech was as follows: "His visit to the Indian reserves and in fact to the Indians throughout the Northwest was indeed a revelation to him and he could return to Ottawa again entertaining a very different impression of the Indians and their requirements, and their importance from that which he had previously had. Mr. Daly had many times in the House of Commons asked for appropriations in respect of the department of Indian affairs, which he himself had considered excessive and out of proportion to the actual necessities. His trip to the west had convinced him that Mr. Daly had been very reasonable in his requests and he could assure the people that in the future his bearing toward this subject would be noticeable for much more consideration at his hands than he had accorded in the past." The people of this province, and particularly of Victoria, will entertain the wish that the premier's visit had exercised the same liberalizing effect on his mind with regard to British Columbia's requirements and interests, but they can hardly hope for so much. Sir Mackenzie must have seen for himself how poor a return is made to this province for all it is made to contribute to the federal treasury, and it is to be supposed that his observation was supplemented by instruction from his party friends. It is somewhat singular that he should have fought so shy of the public while here. His first visit to the coast as premier might naturally have been expected to be used as an occasion for meeting the people and endeavoring to strengthen the party's position. Perhaps he found the conditions in Manitoba more promising in that regard, and therefore consented to appear to public more freely there. He may have been well advised in avoiding public meetings in British Columbia, and particularly in Victoria, where his chief supporters know from past experience how much risk they carry for the party. The fact has already been noted that at Vancouver there was some sort of a demonstration in his honor, which made the course of the Victoria Conservatives appear all the more remarkable. Discretion is doubtless the better part of valor.

A Conservative paper avers that if remedial legislation on the Manitoba school question is proposed in parliament "it will necessarily be of a mild type." If that is the correct idea then we may expect another resignation from Mr. Ouimet and Sir Adolphe Caron, for no legislation of a mild type will answer the demands they have made in behalf of their Quebec masters.

Toronto Globe: "Possibly the most important branch of the work of the Opposition at Ottawa," says The Mail and Empire, "is that which attends to the discovery and circulation of scandals." This is an unusually frank avowal that the ministry has been unable of late to do anything important except to create scandals. That the Opposition has not shrunk from the disagreeable duty imposed on them by such a Ministerial course is greatly to their credit.

A CLEVER GAME.

Deported Chinaman Taken from the Tacoma on a Charge of Theft.

It is believed that the local criminal courts were invoked on Saturday merely as a pretext to prevent Wong Si Quong, Chinese passenger on the steamship Tacoma, deported from the Sound, from going back to China. Lim Yem, a local Chinese merchant, appeared before Thomas Shotbolt, J. P., on Saturday, and swore to an information charging Quong with stealing a suit of clothes on August 15. The warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Sergeant Hawton. Quong was arrested on the deck of the Tacoma and the prosecution deposited the necessary $50 with the customs authorities. Quong was arraigned in police court this forenoon and there was no body present to prosecute him. Magistrate Macrae declared at the same time that the information was defective. He did not care to dismiss the case, however, but remanded it for a day and fixed bail at $100. The bail was furnished later and the Chinaman was released. The police are of opinion that the case was merely a bluff to get Quong ashore.

NANAIMO'S EXHIBITION.

The District Agricultural Society Hold Their Second Annual Fair.

Exhibits Not Numerous, but of Good Quality—List of the Prize Winners.

Nanaimo, Sept. 14.—The Nanaimo District Agricultural and Horticultural Society held their second annual exhibition in the pavilion at the Public park yesterday and to-day. The exhibits were few, but were first-class in every respect. The event was not as extensively advertised as it might have been, and consequently but few people from a distance attended. If the management would provide sheds for housing stock and endeavor to interest more thoroughly the farmers in the rich agricultural district surrounding Nanaimo, there is no reason why future exhibitions should not be more successful in securing a large attendance. Mayor Quennell declared the exhibition open by a few well chosen remarks, in which he congratulated the management on the creditable display.

The artists of Nanaimo had in position a number of handsome paintings in oil, crayon and water colors. They were of sufficient merit to prove conclusively that Nanaimo is not without artistic talent. If one were to criticise, fault could only be found with the modesty of the artist who took the first prize for the best art collection in neglecting to provide the committee with her name.

Possibly the most picturesque and best arranged exhibits in the pavilion were those of flowers and plants. A. C. Wilson, of the Comox Road Nursery, did not a little towards the success of the exhibition by his large and tasteful arranged exhibit of choice plants from the garden of S. M. Robins, superintendent of the New Vancouver Coal company.

The ladies must not be forgotten. Their display is so interesting, particularly to the members of their own sex, that the largest number of the visitors were to be seen around their table. They have in position laces of all descriptions, intricate crochet work in cotton, wool and silk, some very handsome crazy patch work (I believe that's the proper term) and plain and fancy needle work.

James Patterson, of Cranberry district, has been the most successful exhibitor, no less than six first prizes having fallen to his share. He had an exceptionally fine display of fruit, consisting of apples, pears, and plums.

The Union Brewery had an exhibit of their produce in kegs and bottles, while the Pioneer Soda Water Works have a tastefully arranged collection of aerated and mineral water.

Below is the prize list in full:—

Apples, 12 varieties—1st, James Patterson; 2d, Samuel York.
Six Gravenstien apples—1st, James Patterson.
Six Gloria Mundi apples—1st, James McLean.
Six any other variety of apples—1st, James Hamilton.

OUR WALKING HAT

is a winner. It's made the record of the season in the race for popularity. It's heads we win, and on a show of heads we win by a large majority. It's our hats everywhere for style, quality and value. The hat caps the climax of elegance and correctness in attire. It makes or mars everything. One of our superb examples of up-to-date headwear will make any attire just what it should be. Such hats as we show afford no ground for criticism, neither do our prices. To look prosperous and well dressed get a new hat.

Dick and the Doctor

A great deal of illness arises from wet,
Which all you good people should never forget;
For when you are sick the doctor must come
And who can expect that he'll do it for fun.

Prevention we read is much better than cure;
Dick's Boots are preventive, of this we are sure;
Dry feet and goodhealth and comfort you get
By wearing the Shoes that keep out the wet.

Then wend your way quick to the Old Country Store,
Where goods are arriving from Great Britain's shore;
Dick's Old Country Boots will the wisest convince—
Can be worn by the ploughman, the rancher, the prince.

Local News.

Gleanings of City and Provincial News in a Condensed Form.

—Valhalla, the new Scandinavian society, will meet this evening at the Brunswick Hotel.

—H. Stadthagen, 165½ Douglas, second house from Chatham street, sells Pratt's imported coal oil (not filled) can, $1.45; sack 100lb. choice potatoes, 65c. Free delivery.

—Donations to the Refuge Home have been gratefully received from the following: Mrs. Hart, Centennial church social, Mrs. P. Wilson, Mrs. Burkholder, Mrs. Shakespeare, Mrs. Spencer.

Several carloads of wheat and $5,000 worth of flour from the Puget Sound Flouring Mills were taken out on the steamer Utopia this morning for shipment to China on the Canadian Pacific steamer, says the Tacoma News of Friday.

—Among the outward passengers on the Tacoma were eight or ten deported Chinese. They were from various parts of the United States, one coming from Seattle, one from Portland and the remainder from Buffalo, N.Y. The one Chinese from Portland, was the first Chinese to be deported from that city.

—The ladies will be interested in the announcement which Thomas Haughton, proprietor of the Manchester House, makes in another column. French, English and American millinery and all the latest novelties in trimming, etc., have been received and will to-morrow be ready for the inspection of the fair sex.

—The steamer Danube which arrived from the North on Saturday evening brought down 28,108 cases of salmon, divided as follows: 2050, River Inlet Canning Company; 1500, Alert Bay Canning Company; 5000, Mill Bay Cannery; 1007, Naas Harbor Cannery; 1500, Balmoral Cannery; 51, Windsor Cannery; 2000, Lowe Inlet Packing Company.

—Mrs. L. M. Caldwell, chairman of the social committee of the Y. W. C. A., has arranged a series of attractive entertainments for the rest of the year. Gatherings will be held every two weeks, and the first will take place on Tuesday, Sept. 24. It will be a housewarming at the comfortable quarters of the association on Johnson street. One feature of the meetings will be talks on Hygiene and other topics by Dr. Mary McNeill.

—At Metropolitan Methodist church last night there was a special service of song. There was a very large congregation. The programme was an excellent one and it was splendidly rendered. It was as follows: Chorus—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought;" Choir; Solo—"He Was Despised," Mrs. Rowlands; Chorus—"Hark, Hark, My Soul," Choir; Duett, "I Waited For The Lord," Madame Laird and Mrs. Rowlands; Solo—"Israel," Mr. Rowlands; Solo—"Nearer My God To Thee," Madame Laird; Chorus—"Worthy is the Lamb," Choir.

—The Daughters of St. George give a concert and dance at A. O. U. W. hall this evening. Mrs. E. Lang and Mr. Ernest Wolff, who are directing it, have arranged the following programme: "Mud-pie Days," "Our Little Four"; Solo, Miss Lily Lyons; Solo—"Talking In My Sleep," Mr. J. Penketh; Recitation, "Ship On Fire," Miss Irene Dry; Solo, Mrs. J. Dudgeon; Gipsy Dance, May King and Jack Casad; Solo, Miss Amy Wolff; Mop and Bucket drill; Solo, Mr. J. Pilling; Comic song, Mr. Dooley; Solo, Master Percy Thomas; Club Swinging, Miss Emma Wolff; Recitation, Miss Emma Casad; "Sailor's Hornpipe," Joanita Davis.

—Last night at First Presbyterian church Dr. Campbell preached an eloquent sermon to young men. There was a large congregation, composed largely of men. The choir gave a most interesting service of song as follows: "The Lord's Prayer" (chorale); anthem, "Oh Lord most Merciful" (Concone); solo, "Calvary," Mrs. McIntyre; anthem, "Come unto Me (Excell); solo, "The Good Shepherd," Mrs. Gregson; anthem, "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord" (Packard); doxology, "Lord Bless Us Still" (Stainer). The solos by Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Gregson were most enjoyable and the anthems by the choir were excellently rendered.

—The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in the Association rooms to-night at 8 o'clock.

—The loss caused by the fire at Mrs. Pyatt's residence, on Rock Bay avenue has been adjusted and totals $245. The building was insured for $1,000.

—James Byrn was thrown from a horse at Stanley Park, and considerably bruised up yesterday. He was in the act of taking a hurdle with the horse when he fell.

The Vancouver K. of P. are to give an excursion to Victoria on Friday next. They will be banquetted by the Victoria lodges. The visitors will bring with them their team of fifty members which will exemplify the work in the third degree.

—Geo. Van Gulpin, treasurer of several labor organizations in San Francisco, is missing and is supposed to have come to Victoria on his way east to Montreal. He was $900 behind, and is supposed to have used the money in the recent city campaign in which he was a candidate for office.

—Notwithstanding the exhibition, Messrs. Herbert Cuthbert & Co. will hold an important furniture auction at their rooms to-morrow, Tuesday, at 2 p.m. The vendor is leaving the city almost immediately and it is imperative that these goods should be disposed of at once. The furniture is almost new, of latest design and in good condition. Parties furnishing should make an effort to attend. The sale will commence with the elegant carpets outside.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Alexander Turner, of 62 Fernwood road, took place yesterday at 2:30 p.m., from the family residence, and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends, many of whom contributed most beautiful floral emblems. A very impressive spiritualistic service was conducted at the house and cemetery by Mr. A. H. Maynard. The following gentlemen officated as pall bearers: S. Duck, W. Andean, T. Cavin, J. Blackburn, O. C. Hastings and J. Dean.

—The handsome store of Davidson Bros., the jewelers, was thronged with a crowd of delighted sightseers on Saturday evening from the moment the doors were opened—7 o'clock—until near the hour of midnight. Their immense stock was most tastefully arranged, and called forth many expressions of admiration, while the music supplied by Finn's orchestra, which was stationed on the balcony at the rear of the establishment, was much appreciated. Their great clearing sale commenced this morning and will be continued until further notice.

—The city council will meet this evening as usual. Assessor Northcott will present his report on the petition re street paving under the local improvement system. View street has been carried by a very narrow margin, but the aldermen are not in any humor to carry it forward and it is quite probable that the matter will be dropped entirely until next year. One of the aldermen said this morning that besides the manner in which the council was discouraged by the petitions against the work it was a little late to attempt to do anything this year, favorable weather being necessary to the prosecution of the work.

—David Anderson, who, acting as a special constable took a big party of old men to the Kamloops Home for the aged and infirm, returned last night The trip was accomplished without much trouble. There were 16 in the party and there names are as follow: Michael Cahill, Alex. McLean, C. Blayney, James Dooley, J. Dangan, Henry Quittenden, Richard Copeland, R. D Pitt, James McPhadden, James Wilson, Denny Sullivan, Wm. Gilmore, Thomas Fish, Jacques Sandel, and David Murray. Some were from the Old Men's Home, some from Jubilee Hospital, some were from the Shelter and some were never aided publicly before.

—Frank Christianer, representing Sousa's band arrived here this morning on business connected with the prospective visit of that organization to the city. The engagement will take place in February and will be under the management of Robert Jamieson. Whether the Victoria Theatre or the drill shed will be used is hard to say. Sousa's band numbers 50 musicians, and is perhaps the best musical organization of the kind that ever appeared on this continent. The band is at present at St. Louis Exposition and goes from there to Atlanta Exposition. After that it comes to the coast. Marie Barnard, soprano, and Miss Currie Duke, violinist, appear with the band.

—The Presbyterian church was well filled with an appreciative audience yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the Y. M. C. A. exercises. W. H. Bone, president of the association, was in the chair. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. R. Trotter on "Need of special work for young men," and by Rev. W. L. Clay on "The young man of the 20th century." General Secretary Carter followed in a brief talk on "The Association among the young men of the world," at the close of which he asked for a collection, which, when taken, amounted to $20 cash and $63 in pledges for the year. Mr. Carter desires to correct an error he made, which was caused on account of the pressure of time. He stated that all old debts were paid, which should have been rendered "all current liabilities to Sept. 1 were met." The old debt from the former administration has been reduced some $200 during the past year, leaving some $350 still due.

59 1-2 Government Street.

—The room of a man named Kaufman, in the Empire house, on Johnson street, was entered by a burglar one night late last week and a suit of clothing stolen. A skeleton key was used on the door, and the police are of the opinion that the trick was turned by a thief entitled to be called a professional.

—Complaint was made to the police this morning that some time during Saturday night Furnival's auction mart, on Johnson street, was entered and a number of articles carried away. It is not known to a certainty just how much was taken, but it is said that about seven suits of clothing and some other articles of clothing cannot be found.

—James Sterling, a half-breed, known also as James Casey, was rescued from drowning at 4 o'clock this morning at the C. P. N. wharf by Constable Anderson, of the city police. He does not know himself how he got into the water, but had sense enough to make a rumpus when he found himself wet. The constable came to his aid and pulled him out. He was taken to the Occidental, where Mr. Berryman gave him a suit of dry clothes. The constable lost his overcoat in the bay while saving the man.

MEN WHO HAVE WHEELS.

Big Gathering of Cyclists at the Fall Meeting of the Victoria Club.

Three Records for British Columbia Established—Some Pretty Races.

Those who attended the fall meet of the Victoria Wheelmen's Club at Oak Bay track on Saturday afternoon were rewarded by seeing the fastest bicycle riding ever done in British Columbia. Three records were broken, and the whole day's sport was most enjoyable. There was an absence of wrangling or unpleasantness of any kind, and the long programme was run off without delay. The officials of the course did their work well. The day was rather threatening, but still over two thousand people turned out. They were well handled going out by the tramway, but at the conclusion of the sports the immense crowd found only two cars in waiting. It was the only part of the entire arrangements carefully planned in advance that hung fire. The club and its officers deserve the highest praise for the success attained. They succeeded in getting together all the fast riders on the coast north of San Francisco and gave an exhibition of the popular sport that greatly pleased all who saw it.

The three records broken were as follow:

One mile, paced, class B, Eli Winesett, 2:15 3-5.

One mile, paced, class A, C. F. Barker, 2:[illegible] 1-5.

One mile, unpaced, class A, A. Deeming, 2:22 2-5.

The opening race was the quarter mile. James Deeming, Barker of Vancouver, and Bradley and Johnson qualified. It was rather an easy thing for Deeming, although at times Bradley pressed him hard. Johnson beat out Barker and took third place. Time, 34 1-5.

There were nine starters in the mile championship, which came very near resulting in an accident. On the second lap the tandem, which with Bradley and Alley up was doing the pacing, broke, and but for the skill of the riders every man on the track would very likely have been thrown. Johnson, who had been closely following the tandem, lost his place and the race became the Deemings'. James won, with Albert second and Barker third. Kavanaugh rode well and beat the rest of the field. The time was 2:23 1-5, which was very good, and it is believed that if the tandem had not broken it would have been much better.

The five mile race was a splendid one too. The pace was fast throughout, but particularly so at the finish, which was very exciting. Albert Deeming led in, with James second, Barker third and Kavanaugh a wheel away. Time, 14:08.

Penwill, of Victoria, won the novice race. Spain and Lester of Vancouver, Hunter of Nanaimo and Penwill qualified, but Lester owing to a sprained ankle did not start. It was a pretty race that looked like Spain's for a time but at the home stretch Penwill put on a wonderful spurt and passed the leader. Time, 2:49 2-5.

Wright, of McMinnville, Ore., won the mile 2:45 class, as was expected. He outclassed everyone else in it except perhaps Esary of Seattle. Both the above named were protested. Spain of Vancouver and Gray of Nanaimo made the running, and it was withal a pretty race. Wright came up at the finish with a wonderful spurt and won, Gray second, Esary third and Spain fourth. Time, 2:30.

Wright also captured the three-mile open. There were 14 in the race and Kavanaugh and Penwill did most of the pacing for the first two miles. The last mile was a race, in which Wright and Esary forged to the front. Kavanaugh was a close third with Penwill only a length away. Time, 8:13 2-5.

Hewitt and Winsett of Portland, and Campbell were the only class B men at the meet. In the quarter mile event the race was between Campbell and Winesett. The latter won at a championship pace. Time, 32 4-5. In the half mile the three bunched to the quarter, when Campbell drew away with one of his wonderful bursts and won. Winesett was second and Hewitt third. The time was 1:14. The mile was slow. They took it easy for two laps and raced the third. Campbell captured the race with one of his spurts, Hewitt second and Winesett third. Time, 2:44 2-5.

The Deemings withdrew from the five mile class A and B because it was not paced, they said, but the general opinion was that they were rather afraid of it. It was a pretty race all through, the men taking turns at pacing. The finish was very fast. Winesett led in, closely trailed by Wright. Campbell spurted, but his position was poor and he only secured third place. Hewitt was fourth and Barker fifth. Time, 13:57 2-5.

The one mile record, class B, was a pretty performance. The trial heats were easy, Winesett's of 2:26 being the fastest. Hewitt paced him for the first half and Campbell the second and he went the mile to 2:15 3-5. It cut 6 seconds off the track record. Albert Deeming then rode a mile unpaced in 2:22 2-5, which made a provincial mark itself. The last event was Barker's performance, and if he had been taken up more promptly by his pace makers he would have done better. He was paced by Bradley, McGregor and Wright. The first third was done in 44 2-5, the fastest of the day, and the mile in 2:22 1-5.

In the evening the visitors were entertained at a dance at Daughters of England hall and had a very enjoyable time. They all expressed themselves as highly pleased, particularly at the work of the officials of the course from Referee Gibbons down to the mascot.

THE NEW GOLD BOND ISSUE

President Cleveland Said to Be Negotiating With the Rothschilds.

Washington City, Sept. 16.—The treasury department was not advised of any great withdrawals or deposits today. The true amount of the reserve at the close of business was $96,332,554.

New York Sept. 16.—Yesterday's excitement over the financial situation, engendered by the impression that the bond syndicate had withdrawn its protection from the government gold reserve, was succeeded by a calm to-day. There were no developments to add to the uneasiness, and consequently the feeling died down. When banking hours closed at noon there had been no deposits of gold at the sub-treasury by any of the city banks in furtherance of the policy begun yesterday, and on the other hand there had been no withdrawal for shipment, as no steamer sails on Sunday. It was reported that the National City Bank had given the syndicate $1,000,000 in gold in exchange for greenbacks, but the report could not be confirmed at the bank, in the absence of the president, and J. Pierpont Morgan declined to say whether it was true or not.

In banking circles it was said that unless the syndicate received some gold from the National City Bank yesterday it had no more gold on hand at present. Gold certificates, about $3,000,000 in all, are not cancelled when paid in by the syndicate, and therefore appear in the treasurer's statement to be outstanding. For the convenience of the syndicate in making deposits they are allowed to be re-issued, the deposits being treated as coin.

Representatives of Pittsburg and Rochester banks made an offer to deposit $1,000,000 in gold in the sub-treasury here to help keep the gold reserve intact, the offer being accompanied by the proviso that the government pay the express charges on the gold.

The consensus of opinion here is that an issue of bonds before congress has had an opportunity to act is extremely improbable. It is argued that the shrinkage in the shipments of cotton is very unusual; that grain shipments must soon begin, and that the improved business will stiffen money rates. The fact that the United States has since January 1, 1894, exported more than $120,000,000 in gold in excess of her imports, it is claimed, is a strong argument in favor of a speedy return to the normal condition.

What action congress will take is problematical, yet it seems more than probable that the administration will urge the retirement of the United States notes now outstanding. They amount to over $247,500,000, and their presence in the currency is regarded as a constant menace to financial stability. It is thought that Carlisle is now working out a scheme by which this volume of currency can be retired without any serious financial disturbance.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Charles Hutchinson, president of the Corn Exchange bank, in an interview to-day says arrangements for the new issue of bonds are about completed. "I have it on the best of authority," he said, "that the Morgan-Belmont syndicate are negotiating with President Cleveland. The only point undecided is that the amount, the president desiring to make it $25,000,000, while the syndicate wants at least $50,000,000. My information is from New York."

New York, Sept. 14.—The exports of specie from the port of New York this week were $10,223,991, of which $8,229,281 was gold. The imports of the week were: Dry goods, $3,112,487; general merchandise, $7,007,325; gold, $27,051; silver, 16,320.

BANQUETED AT NELSON.

The Board of Trade Delegates Hospitably Received.

Nelson, Sept. 14.—Last evening the visiting contingent of the Victoria Board of Trade were banquetted here by the South Kootenay Board, when Hon. Clarke Wallace, controller of customs, and J. A. Mara, M.P., were also present. The latter presided, and there was the usual list of toasts honored.

In response to the toast of "The Members of the British Columbia Board." President Ker made a happy and well timed speech. They had come to make inquiries with a view to cementing the feeling of union between the different sections of the province by means of mutual trading. Their idea was to secure information of the district, in which although they might not invest immediately themselves they would endeavor, by spreading abroad a knowledge of the resources of the country, to get others to invest. It could be seen from developments so far that the Kootenays had an immese future before them. The great secret of success, however, was provincial unity. It was very important that the smelting of ores in Kootenay be encouraged. He strongly urged the building of a railroad through Crow's Nest Pass to secure the cheap transportation of fuel into Kootenay. The Victoria merchants had been slow in seeking trade with Kootenay, but if they now had a trial he was certain they would satisfy all reasonable demands.

Mr. Flumerfelt and Gus. Leiser in a few well chosen remarks complimented the people of Kootenay upon their energy, Mr. Leiser closing by proposing the toast to the South Kootenay Board of Trade. Mr. Lemon, president of the Board, thanked the company for their evident good will toward the youngest board of trade of the province. The Kootenay merchant had been compelled in the past to fill all short orders on the American side. Only two representative travellers of coast houses had made regular trips into the district during the last seven years. He was personally in sympathy with home industry and believed in fostering trade relations with British Columbia and Canadian houses, and believed Victoria business men ought to secure the trade.

Geo. A. Bigelow also responded to the toast. The last speaker was Hon. Clark Wallace, who in response to the "Dominion" made a short address. He would while in the province visit as many points as possible, as he believed nothing developed the national spirit as much as inter-provincial visits. He predicted that British Columbia with its great natural resources would yet become the envy of the world.

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE.

Socialist Dies Worth $125,000—Mr. Caine on Copyright.

London, Sept. 16.—The will of the Socialist Fred Engels leaves the bulk of his property, to the value of $125,000, to his two daughters.

Mr. Hall Caine sails by the White Star steamer Teutonic next Wednesday carrying with him letters from the Rt Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies. Despite the utterances of Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian high commissioner, Mr. Caine expects to have a friendly hearing with the Canadian Government on the subject of copyright. Mr. Caine said the English authors were willing to admit the right of Canada to govern herself, whether wisely or unwisely, but what they complain of is Canada's demands to the right to govern one section of the English people. Mr. Caine will be the guest of Mr. Appleton in the United States. He has accepted an invitation to a reception by the New York Authors' club, and to dinner at the Lotus club. He goes to Canada by way of Boston.

TOOK WIFE AND DAUGHTER

Andrew Hynes' Hard Luck—Death of a Noted Fenian.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Andrew Hynes, a Canadian, from Dunville, Ont., called on Justice King to-day and asked how he might secure the release of his daughter, Florence, from the state industrial school at Rochester. The girl is 14 years old. She was committed by Justice King on May 17th last. Hynes said his daughter was abducted by a man named Albert Coomble, of Dunville, who also ran away with his wife. Mr. Hynes was advised to see the authorities at Rochester.

Boston, Mass, Sept. 16.—Col. John Warren, well known on both sides of the Atlantic because of his prominence in Irish politics as a leader of the Fenian movement, died to-day at the Massachusetts general hospital, in this city, aged 64 years.

NANAIMO.

Nanaimo, Sept. 16.—The horticultural and agricultural show was completed on Saturday by a grand dance on the platform. The show is said to have been a financial success. There has been unusual dissatisfaction over the the way the prizes have been awarded, but in many instances it has been satisfactorily explained by the judges.

The lacrosse match which was to have taken place in this city on Saturday with the Beavers of Vancouver, did not materialize owing to the Beavers not putting in an appearance.

The pay roll of the New Vancouver Coal Company on Saturday was the smallest for many months. Things, however, look brighter for the present month.

WELLINGTON.

Mr. James Dunsmuir paid our town a flying visit this week on important business.

On Saturday the 21st inst., Wellington will hold its first agricultural and industrial exhibition. Owing to the society having not yet procured grounds of their own the bicycle grounds have been pressed into service. Valuable and extensive prizes are being offered. Among the events of the day will be bicycle races and other sports. Many entries are already in and if the weather proves favorable no doubt this district will have an exhibition not surpassed by any out of the large cities.

The many friends of Mr. David Stevenson are pleased to know that he is rapidly becoming himself again and will no doubt feel more assured when he is once more at his post.

The publishers and readers of the Wellington Enterprise are tired and disgusted over the controversary concerning the Jesuits, which has been carried on for some time and which has become more of a slandering match than a controversy. The controversy has been between Mr. Moffatt and "Citizen." It will in all probability end as all such, with no satisfaction to the readers of the articles and no more to the principals.

Our respected and agreeable postmaster has at last joined the ranks of the Benedicts. He and his bride are at present on a trip to California, after which they will return to Wellington, where a very neat and pretty residence is being made ready to receive them. The bride is Miss R. Lawrence, one of Victoria's fairest daughters.

The excursionists to Comox, who numbered about 200, have returned after spending a most enjoyable trip. The sports were all well contested and in a very sportsmanlike manner. The dancing platform was the great attraction for those who cared for that form of amusement.

A number of private houses are nearing completion and work has been begun on the new Methodist church. The Salvation Army will shortly begin work on their barracks.

The mines have been working steady this month and the output will be much greater than it has been for the last few months.

The Progressist and the Glory of the Seas are at Departure Bay being loaded with coal. They will keep the mines working for some time.

Hhe Deeming brothers will be given a reception by the people of Wellington, who are very proud of their men.

MIDWAY.

Midway Advance.

The manager of the Strathcyre company at Fairview is now awaiting the arrival of shoes, dies and other necessary machinery for the stamp mill before starting the mill on a run of ore which is awaiting treatment.

The severe frost on Thursday and Friday nights damaged very considerably Mr. Hopper's bean and corn crops. He estimates his loss to be at least $50. Frost at this time of the year is considered an unusual occurrence, especially on the bench lands.

Mr. Finch, of Spokane, prominently known in mining circles, visited several of the principal properties in Boundary last week. His expectations, he said, were far exceeded, and he was particularly astonished at the size of the great copper ledges in Greenwood.

Mr. S. S. Fowler, M. E., has for the past few days been engaged in laying out the site for the smelter which it is proposed to erect at Midway. He expects to be occupied here for some time to come by the necessary preliminary work, supposing the scheme to be successfully carried through.

The proprietors of the Spotted Horse, Messrs. Coveat and Sutherland, have just completed the third assessment. A 12-foot tunnel has been run into the vein, and the showing is most satisfactory. The property will prove valuable in the event of the erection of a smelter in the district, the ore as yet not being very rich in gold and silver, running 60 per cent. in lead. The silver goes probably from 12 to 40 ounces to the ton.

George Cook located last month a claim in the Wellington camp, the Jim, which promises one day to develop into a valuable mine. Already overtures have been made to him to bond the claim. A ten-foot shaft has been sunk, and the iron capping which covers the ore has been removed. The ore is a copper sulphate, and it is supposed will assay between $25 and $30 in gold. The ledge is known to be 50 feet wide, but how much more has not been determined.

Another large body of ore has been struck on the ranch of Mr. Learow, Anarchist mountain, and the proprietors who are now trying to ascertain the extent of the deposit, have already stripped the ledge to a width of 50 feet, without having as yet located the walls. It is a large body of hematic ore, similar in character to that found on Kruger mountain, also to the east and west of Boundary creek, the north fork of Kettle river, and those of Trail creek. The frequency of the outcropping and the great number of claims located would tend to show that a vast ledge of ore runs in an almost direct east and west line through the country for a distance already determined of over a hundred miles, and in each and every instance in which claims have been located on it, the ore body has been found to be of an immense width, testifying to the permanency of its character.

The trial shipment of ore from the Smuggler claim at Fairview, recently sent to the Tacoma smelter by the owner, Mr. T. Elliott, returns from which have been received, gave, after the expenses for smelting had been deducted, a net return of $143.70. Before being shipped the ore was sorted at the mines, yet the returns are considered satisfactory. The class of ore taken from the mine before work was stopped a few days ago, preparatory to the establishment of hoisting machinery, is of a much better character than that sent to Tacoma, as an assay from the bottom of the shaft, which is now down 92 feet, gave the splendid result of a little over $500 to the ton in gold and silver. Much free gold is met with in the ore at present, and some of the specimens are of a peculiarly rich character.

VERNON.

Vernon News.

Wild geese have again put in their appearance, though as yet the flocks are small, and they are hard to get at. Sandhill cranes are somewhat more plentiful this year than is usually the case. Good bags of chicken, grouse and ducks continue to be made by local sportsmen.

Mr. G. L. Breeden, of Camp Hewitt, was in town on Saturday and had with him some splendid looking samples of ore from the Stemwinder and Comstock claims, in which he is interested. The ore carries silver and copper in undoubtedly paying quantities, and in both claims the ledges are wide and well defined.

The move among the farmers towards securing for themselves a grist mill appears to be going steadily ahead. Mr. D Graham, M. P. P., and Thomas Clinton were in town last Saturday on business connected with this project, and appear to entertain no doubt as to the result. They believe that the necessary funds will be secured and without difficulty and that the mill will be ready for work at the end of the year.

A very noticeable change has taken place within the past few months in the prevailing opinion regarding the mineral wealth of the upper Okanagan district. Distant fields proverbially look green, and hitherto while residents of this district were willing enough to give credence to the reports of the immense mining resources of the Kootenays or Cariboo, but little attention has been given to prospecting at home. Though nothing approaching to an "excitement" has yet taken place, there has of late been shown an evident disposition to examine more closely the quartz croppings which can be found in a score of different directions, within easy reach of this city.

KAMLOOPS.

Inland Sentinel.

The charge against Frank Morris of supplying liquor to Indians, was dismissed by the magistrates. Joe Wayee was charged with supplying liquor to two other Indians. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months at hard labor. Petries and Johnnie Pateli were arraigned on the charge of killing Felix Thoma on the night of August 31 or September 1. The case was remanded 8 days. Seymour Williams and Frank August were arraigned on the same charge and were likewise remanded.

Wm. Lewis, who went up to Adams lake prospecting last July with John Hanna, came in this morning and recorded two mineral claims, the Iron Horse and Morning Star, on Adams lake, about six miles from the outlet. They have not yet obtained assays but will return in the spring to do the assessment work. They think there is more gold than silver in the rock.

Prospects for the success of Kamloops fair, to be held during the first week in October, beginning on Wednesday, are very bright. The number of entries will be large and stockmen, as a general rule, have announced their intention of bringing in their best animals. The horse races will be keenly contested, and in everything the fair will be a good representation of what this section of the country can produce.

J. M. Kellie, M. P. P., of Revelstoke, was in the city on Thursday, accompanied by T. Hennessey, of Big Bend, who has been ailing for some time, and will go to the hospital for treatment. Mr. Kellie has big hopes for the Lardeau country, which he predicts will next year attract as much attention as Trail creek does this summer. On the Great Northern group, largely sold to Boston capitalists, a very large body of ore occurs. The tunnel has run for 12 feet in the vein, and the men are still working in ore, which runs from 40 to 100 ounces in silver and $7.50 to $10 in gold. Other claims also show large bodies. The waggon road built this year to Trout lake makes the mines more accessible than last year. Valleys of good farming land occur along some of the streams, and this when cultivated will be of much assistance to the district. Mr. Kellie estimates that the output of all the Kootenay mines this year will reach $3,000,000 in value.

MISS RAY FRANK.

The Gifted Jewess Who Is to Lecture in Victoria This Week.

Miss Ray Frank, of Oakland, Cal., who is to lecture in the Temple Emanu-El on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, arrived from San Francisco on the steamer Walla Walla, and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Leuz, Yates street. The San Francisco Chronicle had the following notice of Miss Frank at the outset of her career, some two years ago:—

"Miss Frank is well known in this State, where she has lectured in all the important towns. She has been east over a year now, and is even more widely known there than here, for she has only been lecturing and preaching three years, and her most mature work has been done away from her native State.

"Miss Frank exhibited a taste for work of a public nature long ago. She has not preached in the strict sense of the word many times. She has written many sermons, logical, clear and convincing, and these have all been published.

"Philosophy always interested this talented young woman. She reads Hebrew and German and is acquainted with the philosophical writings of both languages. Besides the great amount of reading on this subject Miss Frank has done, she studied ethics and philosophy under Professor Harrison at the State University, and for the past year has been taking a course in Jewish philosophy at the Hebrew Union College at Cincinnati, Ohio. It was in 1892 that Miss Frank went east to enter this college as a student, and although she was the first woman to enter there, she was cordially received by Dr. Wise, the president of the institution and one of the most learned and celebrated Jews in this country. Dr. Wise told Miss Frank that he was glad to have her there; that he had read much of her religious writing, and altogether made her feel welcome, an experience not accorded to all pioneers. The Hebrew College at Cincinnati is one of two in this country, the other being located at New York.

"Miss Frank did not remain at the college long enough to be ordained, as it was her wish to study still more before taking the rite. She is the first woman student in the college and will be the first to be ordained as a rabbi. There is absolutely no precedent in this country or any other, as no woman before has occupied the position of rabbi. The career of the prophetess Deborah forms the only analogy to the work Miss Frank has undertaken, and even here the likeness fails, for when Deborah preached to Israel there were no synagogues. Since then there have been noted women teachers, but there is a distinction between teacher and preacher in the mind of the Jew.

"Miss Frank began her public career as a teacher in the Jewish Sabbath school in the Oakland synagogue. It is customary for women to teach classes of children, and Miss Frank was notably successful in the work. Soon she undertook a Bible class for older students, and before long the older members of the congregation, attracted by the fame of her teaching, began to attend her Bible class. At this time there was no rabbi for the congregation and Miss Frank was invited several times to lecture in the evening. She accepted these invitations willingly.

"When the Congress of Religions opened Miss Frank was invited, as the youngest delegate present, to open the congress with a prayer. Those who heard it say that the young Jewess was inspired. Many hearers, besides Jews, gathered about her when she had concluded and told her how grand her effort had been. Among these was Archbishop Riordan and others who felt the truth of her statement, that one of the most wonderful things in the world was the gathering together under one roof of a Jewish and Catholic congress, representing types of religious thought which had for centuries been in apparent opposition.

"Miss Frank addressed the Congress of Representative Jewish Women on Sept. 5th. Later still she was invited to address the Grand Army of the Republic. Being the sole woman speaker she chose for her subject "The Daughters of the Republic," and this effort was no less successful than the two preceding it.

"Miss Frank is of medium height and rather slender. She has dark hair and eyes, and a face full of strength of character. She possesses an individuality of her own, but is free from affectation and self-consciousness.

"She is trying to learn the difference in the Jewish creeds, so as to weigh them carefully. She believes that they can be reconciled, and this reconciliation is the object of her ambition. She wishes to see the whole Jewish race in truth 'a nation of priests.'"

SAANICH AND SALT SPRING.

A Wedding—Island Postal Arrangements—A Fine Orchard.

The steamer Mary Hare on Saturday afternoon made a special trip from Sidney to Ganges Harbor to accommodate a wedding party, the principals of whom were Mr. Charles Toleon and Miss. Wilson, daughter of the Rev. Wilson, who by the Directors, and generally the affairs who immediately after getting married Sunday morning came aboard the steamer, which was gaily decorated with numerous flags, and proceeded to Sidney. There they took the train for Victoria.

Sidneytown has recently had an addition to its industrial population by the arrival and settlement of Mr. L. P. Muirhead who has commenced the photography business in town. His studio contains a number of very fine views and groups which testify to his skill and taste as an artist.

Residents of Salt Spring Island continue anxious to hear of the success of the petition which some time ago they addressed to their member of parliament, Mr. Haslam, to have mail accommodations for the islands by the steamer Mary Hare.

Mr. William Thomson, a thriving farmer, and one of the early settlers in the neighborhood of Saanichton station, has a young orchard planted out on his farm containing twelve hundred trees, principally apples. Some fruit trees planted on his farm some years ago now yield a return of over twenty dollars annually. When the orchard is old enough to make a similar return, Mr. Thomson, "his heirs or successors" will have a considerable income from the proceeds.

A portion of the milk supply of the city of Victoria is from the dairy of Postmaster Sluggett, near Butler's cross road. He sends to town by the railway daily, about forty gallons of milk.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Events of Interest in the Amateur and Professional Field.

THE OAR.

Y. M. C. A. REGATTA.

The Y. M. C. A. regatta on Saturday afternoon was quite a success. There was a little delay in starting but the races were run off very well. The day's sport brought out some keen contests which were greatly enjoyed by the good sized crowd in attendance. Capt. McIntosh's launch proved very handy for the officials. It was the last regatta of the season and prizes will be presented at the annual meeting of the association this evening. Next year an effort will be made to secure four-oared boats. The winners were as follow:

Double sculls—First heat, W. Peden and C. Wrigiesworth.

Single sculls—E. Robinson 1, H. Scott 2.

Double sculls—Second heat, W. Russell and W. Kelly.

Tandem Peterboro canoe—W. Adams and F. Norris 1, C. Wrigiesworth and W. Peden 2.

Double culls—Third heat, E. Robinson and H. Scott.

Four blade Peterboro canoe—W. Adams, J. Gaudin, A. Davey, and F. Norris.

Double sculls—Fourth heat, C. Wrigiesworth and W. Peden.

Double sculls—Fifth heat, E. Robinson and R. Scott.

Double dingey race—W. Peden and C. Wrigiesworth (steered by Miss Erskine) 1, H. Erskine and Mr. Heaton (steered by Miss Andrews) 2.

Double sculls—Final heat, C. Wrigiesworth and W. Peden.

W. Peden and C. Wrigiesworth thus won the 1st prize double sculls, H. Scott and E. Robinson taking second.

W. Peden and C. Wrigiesworth thus won the first prize double sculls, H. Scott and E. Robinson taking second.

YACHTING.

DEFENDER AT HOME.

New Rochelle, N. Y., Sept. 16.—C. Oliver Iselin, representative of the syndicate which owns the Defender, to-night denied the report that the Defender would be taken to Cramp's shipyard in Philadelphia for examination. Mr. Iselin did not think the Defender would go out of New Rochelle harbor this year. The yacht has been dismantled, but the crew is still living on board the tender Hattie Palmer, not having been discharged. It has not been decided, says Mr. Iselin, what shall be done with the cup winner, but she will probably be housed for the winter near his home.

DON'T LIKE YANKEES.

London, Sept. 16.—Rules of the road at sea, the rights of yachts engaged in a race, to claim the course free from impediment by pleasure craft, and principally the Earl of Dunraven's conduct in refusing to finish the races for the most famous international sporting trophy, the America's cup, have formed the principal topics of discussion in London the last few days. It must be admitted despite the fair comments of the best among the London newspapers, and the polite assurance of such a power in the yachting world as Mr. Ormonde, vice-commodore of the Royal Yacht Squadron, that American yachts and yachtsmen will always be welcome here, that this will not be the case. There has always been a feeling here against Americans, as has fairly been shown in all recent international contests. Every American who has lived for any length of time in England must have become familiar with this feeling, which crops out on all occasions. The former American ambassador, who was one of the most popular men who ever came to England, and who was received on terms of greater intimacy by the most exclusive circles in England than any of his successors, once said, alluding to an article in the St. James' Gazette, a paper which has always been noted for its hostility to Americans: "I regard the paper as a true exponent of the feeling of the British people with regard to America. They do not like us, and it is no use trying to persuade ourselves otherwise."

THE GUN.

PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONSHIP.

It has been decided by the Victoria and Union Gun clubs to have only one afternoon's shooting at the championship meting. That was decided on as there will not be many visitors and it can be completed in that time. The match will be at 100 Blue Rocks for a gold medal representing the provincial championship, and will commence at 2 p.m. on the 21st inst. It will be followed by pool shooting.

Millinery Opening.

The Ladies are respectfully invited to our Millinery Opening to-morrow, Tuesday, Sept. 17. Lansdowne House, 86 Yates street.

VICTORIA'S FALL FAIR.

stall, the number of horses entered being unusually large and of splendid quality. The Broadmead Farm, owned by R. P. Rithet, M. P. P., and Cloverdale, owned by the Tolmie estate, are each represented by a string of thoroughbred and pedigreed horses, mares and colts that it would be hard to improve upon. Among the other exhibitors in this class are Messrs. King, Heal, McNeill, McInnes, Pemberton, Wilkinson, Tait, Cameron, Snider, F. Adams, Irvine, Hollingshead, Bowker, McKeon and others, all of whom have stock that is well worth showing. The cattle, sheep and pigs are also well represented.

Messrs. Ruddick and Marter, who have charge of the travelling dairy, arrived last evening and will to-morrow commence operations. To-morrow they will show the farmers how cream should be extracted, giving a short lecture, and on Thursday the butter will be made. Prof. Robertson, the dairy commissioner, is expected here before the end of the week.

Among others who arrived from the Mainland last evening were: Mr. T. A. Sharpe, of the experimental farm at Agassiz; A. H. B. Macgowan, secretary of the Fruit Growers' Association; J. T. Wilkinson, of Chilliwack, and G. W. Henry of Hatzic. Mr. Sharpe brought down exhibits of farm produce and Mr. Wilkinson horses, pigs and sheep. To-night's steamer will bring numerous exhibits from the Fraser Valley and other parts of the Mainland.

There are nineteen head of horses at the track for the races on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and four more are coming up from Portland. The races should prove very interesting. Here is the programme for the week:

Monday—Preparation day—Arranging of exhibits and judging articles in the main building.

Tuesday—Opening day—2 p.m., official opening by Hon. Col. Baker, acting premier of the province; 3 p.m., judging cattle and grand parade of live stock. Band concert by B. C. B. G. A. band afternoon and evening. Dancing in the pavilion in the evening.

Wednesday—School children's day—1 p.m., children march from central school to exhibition grounds; 2 p.m., military drill, manoeuvres and march past by 1000 school boys; dumbbell exercises by the same detachment; children's sports. 2:30 p.m., intermediate championship lacrosse match, Westminster Maple Leafs vs. Capitals of Victoria. Band concerts afternoon and evening. Dancing in the pavilion in the evening.

Thursday—Canadian day—Horse racing at Stanley Park. Band concerts afternoon and evening. Dancing in the evening.

Friday—American day—Horse racing at Stanley Park. Band concerts afternoon and evening. Dancing in evening.

Saturday — British Columbia day—Horse races at Stanley Park. Band concerts afternoon and evening.

American News.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 16.—Miss Nettie Burhous, formerly a teacher in Tacoma public schools, and for two a resident of Honolulu, in a letter to her sister, indicates that cholera will carry off a large portion of the natives, who will not report a cholera victim to the board of health. The natives believe the white people want to poison them, and therefore refuse to take any medicine. In one instance a physician found natives burying a cholera victim alive. The cholera stricken victim was not dead, but his grave had already been dug, and he was too miserable to care about objecting. The physician prevented the burial until the man was dead.

TRAVEL IN SPAIN.

A Land Where Men do not Usually Seem to be in a Hurry.

One of the greatest charms of Spain to a reflective mind is the entire absence of anything like an atmosphere of labor. There is none of the fretting energy of bread-winning, and the traveler in her provinces seems to himself to have stepped out of the nineteenth and crossed the magical portal into the sixteenth, for anything he can discover that bespeaks what we term "the spirit of the age." No one is in a hurry; even the beggars whine lazily. Toiling and harvesting and spinning is not a part of their code of life.

There is no planning or thought for the morrow, for they know the prodigal Ceres will care for their children, and the sun-browned idlers fall asleep on the cool marble steps of the cathedral, or by the roadside in the shade of the olive trees, and no one thinks to question their right or privilege to do so. They live for the sole enjoyment of each day by itself. Now and again the air is stirred by the sounds of preparation for some picturesque procession or festival, in honor of a favorite saint, or for some royal tournament or bull fight, but it is all a mere matter of pleasurable enjoyment, and the thought or anxiety of their daily bread does not enter into the question of the hour.—The Art Interchange.
